

Morocco is hosting the main event celebrating the World Marine Aids to Navigation Day 2023

July, the 4th and 5th of 2023, Tangier, Morocco

Scope:

The kingdom of Morocco in partnership with the International Association of Marine Aids to Navigation and Lighthouse Authorities (IALA), is hosting the main event celebrating the World Marine Aids to Navigation Day 2023.

This event is considered as an opportunity to make the world aware of aids to navigation and to promote IALA's role in this field. It's also an occasion to celebrate the Cap Spartel lighthouse nomination as an IALA Heritage Lighthouse of the year 2023 and promote its heritage culture.

Topic:

By engaging panel experts from Morocco and foreign experts from IALA and others, the event will address tools, practices and successful experiences as well as exposing technical and technological practices emerging from works of IALA industrial members.

Objectives:

Under the IALA banner "Successful Voyages, Sustainable Planet", the World Maritime Aids Day aims to enable representatives of member states to promote IALA by bringing to the attention of the public the role of IALA and the importance of its technical work for the safety of aids to navigation, to be perceived as modern, technologically advanced maritime aids that, together with lighthouses, embrace the latest digital developments and incorporate new developments in all areas, including vessel traffic services.

The objectives of this event are:

- To gather Aids to Navigation managers around a conference dealing with aids to navigation in a context of continuous evolution and adaptation for a better support of international provisions;
- Thematic sessions allowing for strategic reflection and opening up a debate in connection with the new challenges of the 2018-2026 IALA's strategy;
- The presentation of the IALA trophy for the Cape Spartel Lighthouse on the occasion of its nomination as an IALA Heritage Lighthouse of the Year 2023;
- An exhibition of AISM's industrial members around new technologies for Navigation Aids.

Date & Location:

The event will take place on July 04, 2023 in Tangier, Morocco and will be held at the Barceló Tangier Hotel. This day will be followed by a program of technical and cultural visits, scheduled upon prior registration on July 05, 2023.

Participants :

About 100 participants are expected to attend, including aids to navigation managers, representatives of competent maritime authorities and port authorities,

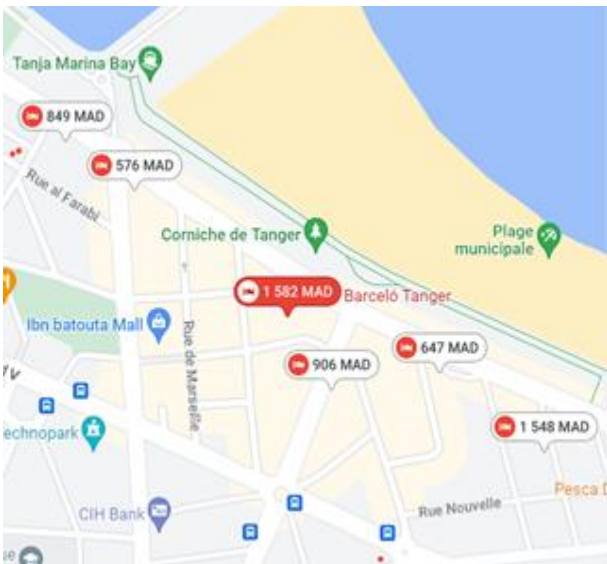

Languages:

The event is planned in French with a French / English simultaneous translation for the whole day.
