

VACANCY

IALA World-Wide Academy DEAN

Based in IALA Headquarters, Saint-Germain-en-Laye, France, with regular international travels

The International Association of Marine Aids to Navigation and Lighthouse Authorities (IALA) established the IALA World-Wide Academy as its capacity building and training vehicle in 2012.

A full time Dean is now required to provide executive leadership for the goals and objectives of IALA's World-Wide Academy.

It is expected that the successful candidate will start his/her contract as soon as possible.

The ideal applicant will:

- Have a suitable academic education and strong senior executive experience from an international environment
- Have a strong nautical, aids to navigation management and/or Vessel Traffic Service background
- Be fluent in written and spoken English – fluency in French and/or Spanish will be an important advantage
- Be a visionary team leader with both diplomatic and communications skills
- Experience within education, training and/or capacity building will be an advantage

The successful candidate will:

- Lead the Academy staff
- Conduct systematic education, training and capacity building worldwide within the realm of IALA
- Oversee the development of IALA model courses and manage the IALA training accreditation scheme
- Secure the funding of the Academy through sponsorships and other means

A comprehensive salary and benefits package will be negotiated with the successful candidate.

Deadline for applications is 1 September 2024

Application letters including a curriculum vitae should be sent by email to contact@iala-aism.org